VIA AUTO TO FORT SILL

Fourth Regiment Band Members Drive Overland — Band Put Up Great Dinner.

The first of the Missouri National Guardsmen to leave for a government cantonment for war training left Camp Clark, Nevada, yesterday for Fort Sill, Okla. It was the Fourth Regiment of which many boys from Maryville and Nodaway county are members.

Under the division plan of the war department, the Fourth Regiment and the Third Kansas regiment will be as one regiment. Col. John D. McNeely, now commanding officer of the Fourth, will be the colonel of the new regiment formed.

In a letter received today from Wilfred H. White of Maryville, who left here with the Fourth Regiment band, he says he and a number of others are driving in cars to Fort Sill. They left Nevada Sunday evening at 7 o'clock and reached Iola, Kan., that night at 12:30. He says the roads are fine and that the second day they intend to go as far as Wichita, Kan.

"The band put up a great dinner yesterday," says White in his letter. "They had roast beef, brown gravy, mashed potatoes, potato salad, sweet potatoes, coffee, salads, raspberry jam, cakes, bread, butter. Lieut. Gus B. Ridge and Lieut. Hamilton McCord were our guests. The cooks were Henry Buhler, Roy Evans, Jack Moffett and Carl Tarpley."

AUTOWRECK, 2 HURT

F. E. CUMMINS AND CLARK SCOTT HAVE NARROW ESCAPE.

TURNED OVER ON CURVE

Attempt to Make Corner at High Speed and the Car Goes into Ditch—Several Saw Accident.

Frank E. Cummins and Clark Scott had a narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon about five o'clock when the automobile in which they were riding failed to take a corner at high speed and turned over several times. Cummins was severely injured while Scott escaped with a few minor bruises and cuts from broken glass.

The accident occurred northwest of Maryville on the road leading into town near the Johnson place east of the Bovard corner. Cummins was driving, and according to Scott, who occupied the seat with him, they came down the hill after having passed another car, at a speed which Scott says was about forty miles an hour. Hitting the curve the automobile turned over and rolled into the ditch. Rolla Rees, of Burlington Junction, came on the scene in a few minutes after the accident and aided Scott in getting Cummins from beneath the car and took him to his home on South Buchanan street.

Mrs. Ed Curfman, who was driving along the same road also witnessed the accident and brought word to the Wray garage and a car was sent to bring the wrecked machine in.

Cummins' injuries consist of a dislocated clavicle, an injured shoulder and hurts about the head. He was resting easily this morning and it is believed he will not suffer any permanent disability.

GET $90 TO START FUND

Surgical Dressings Units Will Begin Christmas Boxes For the Soldiers At Once.

The nucleus of a fund to provide the Nodaway County boys who have entered the service of Uncle Sam with Christmas boxes was begun today when the Maryville Surgical Dressings units received $90.00 as their share of the proceeds of the Mary Pickford film shown at the Empire theatre last night. One of the largest crowds the theatre has ever held enjoyed the picture.

It is understood that it is proposed to turn over to the Surgical Dressings units the sum collected on last Wednesday at the farewell barbecue to augment the Christmas box fund, $125.00 having been contributed on that day by various persons. H. C. Todd, who has charge of the fund, could not be found today to say whether or not it would be done. The ladies of the units will begin plans at once for making up the boxes that will be sent to the ninety-six boys in service.

A REPORT THIS WEEK

MEN RETURN FROM EXAMINATION AT KANSAS CITY.

REJECTIONS EXPECTED

Specialists Agree With the Findings Made By the Local Board in Every Instance.

E. E. Williams, Edward W. Gray and Harry Wells returned from Kansas City today, where they had been summoned by the Western District Board for re-examination. No decision was announced by the board before their departure and they said word would be sent them probably Thursday or Friday of this week.

It is thought probable all three men would be rejected by the district board. In the case of Mr. Williams, the foot specialist recommended that he be exempted as unquestionably he had flat feet in addition to other foot trouble.

The foot specialist, Dr. Jackson, also found Mr. Gray had a bad foot but thought it probably would not be sufficient to prevent serving in the army. Mr. Gray was examined by another foot specialist who took an x-ray of his foot and reported to the district board his findings of an unsound foot.

Mr. Wells was also examined by Dr. Jackson for a bad knee for which he was rejected here by the local board. Dr. Jackson found his knee in bad shape but was of the opinion that it would not bother him if he were in the army. However, Dr. Jackson wrote the district board and said if Mr. Wells could present affidavits to the effect of substantiating his claims he should be excused.

The report of the examinations of Williams, Wells and Gray were given to Dr. Matthews, physician of the district board. He declined to say anything about the cases except that the boys would probably hear some time this week.

Forrest Dowden who was the only man to be selected will probably be exempted by the district board, having filed a dependent claim. Dowden who was rejected by the local board on account of being twelve pounds underweight was not even weighed by Dr. Matthews.

BOCHE AIRMEN PAY LONDON VISIT

15 KILLED; 70 WOUNDED IN LAST NIGHT'S AIR RAID.

MANY PLANES TAKE PART

Searchlights Play Over City and Rocket Shrapnel Furnish Interesting Spectacle.

Special to The Democrat-Forum. London, Sept. 25.—In view of the large territory attacked and the number of airplanes and Zeppelins taking part, last night's German air raid against England was one of the most pretentious since such attacks have begun, according to advices received. Not only was London attacked, but bombs were dropped all along the east coast from Kent pier to Yorkshire. An early statement said that about half a dozen persons were killed and a score wounded, but the casualties list is not yet completely checked. Many fires were caused by the incendiary bombs.

Between 8 and 9 o'clock the noise of battle was heard throughout the city. Anti-aircraft guns were being fired from numerous points and bombs could be heard dropping. Searchlights played over the city and the rocket-like bursts of shrapnel furnished an interesting spectacle.

A later report from the war office gave the number killed at fifteen and seventy wounded in last night's air raid. The damage, it was announced was comparatively slight.

Another violent artillery duel developed on the west Flanders front, especially east of Ypres, the war office announced. The attempts of the Germans to capture British outposts northeast of Lens failed.

Along the western front intense air activity and thirty-two airplanes were shot down in one day's fighting, according to reports from British, French and German war offices.

ARGENTINA IS MOBILIZING

Diplomatic Break With Germany Now Rests With the President of the Republic.

Special to The Democrat-Forum. Buenos Aires, Sept. 25.—A diplomatic break with Germany now rests with the president. After a twenty-four hours session the chamber of deputies voted to support the senate resolution calling for a break. Before the action becomes effective it must receive the approval of the executive. The president, it is said has a pacific leaning and was grouping his followers that blocked action in the chamber a week after the senate voted for the break.

Mobilization of the Argentine navy has been ordered at a rendezvous thirty-seven kilometers from Buenos Aires.

There is also unusual military activity in the republic. Although this is ostensibly due to the general strike a high official said today that the general staff has its eyes open to "other necessities."

Premises Were Not Kept.

Special to The Democrat-Forum. Washington, Sept. 25.—The federal trade commission moved to compel news print paper manufacturers to carry out the agreement with the commission to furnish publishers paper at more reasonable prices. That the manufacturers have not carried out their promises is the burden of many complaints received.

"THE VICAR OF WAKEFIELD."

First Number of Lyceum Course at Christian Church Monday.

The first number of the Lyceum course of moving pictures at the Christian church will be given on next Monday night when "The Vicar of Wakefield," with Frederick Warde, a Pathé-Thausen production will be seen. Mr. Frederick Warde, appearing in the picturization of Oliver Goldsmith's classic is the foremost interpreter of Shakespearean plays and has been permanently engaged for some of the Thausen masterpieces. The "Vicar of Wakefield" has its setting in and among the same scenes that are familiar to those who have read the book.

The photoplay is the result of months of painstaking artistic effort in the Thausen studios at New Rochelle, and is offered as the greatest character study ever presented on the screen. As Goldsmith's story was autobiographical his action unfolded with unbroken smoothness, and this is capitalized in the picturization.

The picture machine that will be installed for the numbers of the course is of the most modern make and every attention will be given to projecting perfect pictures. Members of the various classes are selling season tickets, good for twelve numbers at $1. The course includes some of the great masterpieces of literature, history and fiction.

Today Women Are Better Corseted—

BECAUSE OF

MODART CORSETS Front Laced

Front Laced Corsets—particularly the MODART—have had a remarkable rise in popularity in the last few years. Thousands and thousands of women find the front laced corset maintains their figure lines, supports the body naturally and gives them stylish, permanent and distinctive lines.

The Front Laced Corset properly designed will do more for your figure than any other corset. It fits like a coat. It can not be drawn out of shape or into any other shape other than that which it is designed to portray. It gives to the wearer a perfect back, and relieves all harmful pressure on the spinal column. The figure takes the perfect lines of the corset.

A MODART trial fitting will tell you better than anything else how stylish and how comfortable a MODART Corset really is. A full realization of the superior design of the corset, the proper materials, and careful workmanship of the MODART Corset can only be appreciated by a trial fitting. Then the comfort becomes apparent; then the style lines are seen; then the beauty of outline is noted. A trial fitting is a more convincing argument of the value of a MODART Front Laced Corset than any description we might use.

T. R. AT OLD GLORY WEEK

In Speech at Kansas City He Urges Military Training As A Permanent Policy.

Kansas City, Sept. 25.—A plea for universal obligatory military training as a permanent policy of the United States was made by Theodore Roosevelt in his speech here last night at the Fall Festival in honor of Old Glory Week. "If a man is not willing to fight for the country then he is not fit to vote in the country," said Colonel Roosevelt. Most of the Colonel's remarks were in denunciation of Germany and those persons in the United States whose sympathies are with Germany.

On the subject of obligatory military training Colonel Roosevelt said further:

"If our young manhood is trained in such fashion it will mean an immense benefit to them spiritually. They will be far better fitted for the tasks of peace.

"This won't mean militarism. On the contrary, it is the anti-scorbutic of militarism. Modern warfare needs such masses of formidable and complicated military machinery and such training in those who handle them, that an untrained people is absolutely helpless in the presence of a small military force, foreign or native, that has been really trained.

"If this great nation remains, as during the last three years in spite of every warning, it remained until its very helplessness made Germany kick it into war, then we shall become the China of the west and we might as well all of us wear pig tails. If we show the hard common sense, the steadfastness of purpose, and the patriotic devotion to duty that will enable us to prepare our strength along the lines above indicated, the chances will be very small that any nation in the world will ever attack us, and the chances will be infinitesimal that even if attacked we could be conquered."

SLOW TO BUILD ROADS

North Part of State Doing Little in This Line Says the State Highway Commissioner.

That all the road work being done in Missouri is south of the river, was the statement made last night by George E. McIninch, member of the state highway commission, who returned yesterday from Jefferson City, where he attended a meeting of the board, says the St. Joseph Gazette.

"South of the river the people are very much awake to their chances for good roads with federal and state aid thrown in, but there is nothing at all being done anywhere north of the river—in the very part of the state that one would think would jump at the chance that is offered," declared McIninch. "In some of the southern counties the actual work has been begun and in others the projects are on foot and in some bond issues have been voted. But we hear nothing like that from the northern counties.

U. S. BANKERS MEET

WAR COUNCIL OF FINANCIERS IS NOW ON IN NEW YORK.

TO AID IN LIBERTY LOAN

Lord Northcliffe, One of Speakers Representing Allied Missions—Thousands Attend.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.
Atlantic City, Sept. 25.—Nearly 20,000 of the leading bankers of the United States gathered here today to discuss the tremendous financial problems raised by the war. From every State in the Union they have come to exchange views of financing measures and to hear the leading officials of not only this country but of the Allied nations discuss the money problems, on the wise solving of which success in the war depends.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo is here to tell the bankers how they may aid the nation in floating the forthcoming Second Liberty Loan and to point out to them the lessons to be learned from the first big borrowing. Lord Northcliffe, head of the permanent British mission in the United States, is here to give the American bankers the benefit of the experience gained by Great Britain in the course of three years of war financing. Members of other foreign missions will deliver addresses and join in the discussions of war financing measures, while Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Oscar T. Crosby, will tell the bankers how the Treasury has lent the Allies nearly two and a half billion dollars, despite the fact that but two billions have been borrowed through the sale of bonds.

Millions Must Be Absorbed.

The Federal Government is known to be depending on the bankers of the United States to make the Second Liberty Loan and the others which are to follow successful. They also are depending on the bankers to absorb the millions of dollars in Treasury certificates of indebtedness which the Treasury must sell constantly for the duration of the war to keep enough money in the Government till to meet the fabulous payrolls of army and navy and civil establishments.

The convention which opened here today were every aspect of a war council. While uniforms of fighting men were absent, there was no less an air of military importance about the meeting, as it was fully realized by the entire membership of the American Bankers' association that upon the money supplies of the nation depends in large measure the success not only of American arms, but of the arms of the Allies making common cause against Germany. Every banker was thinking about the nation's finances in terms of bullets and war supplies.

Today's sessions were preliminary and got the organization of the convention out of the way. The real work of the meeting will begin tomorrow.

Noted Bankers Attend.

Among the celebrated officials who will participate in the convention are: Benjamin Strong, Governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York; George M. Reynolds, president of the Continental and Commercial National Bank of Chicago; P. W. Goebel of Kansas City, Kan., president of the American Bankers' association; Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University; Carl Vrooman, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture; Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, who toured the country at the behest of the American Bankers' association in behalf of the Liberty Loan; Hon. R. H. Brand and Basil Blackett, famous British financiers; W. P. G. Harding, Governor of the Federal Reserve Board; Myron T. Herrick, of Cleveland, former Ambassador to France, and many others who are aiding in guiding the destiny of the Allied nations.

Domestic banking problems will be taken up in addition to the national and international affairs. The long-drawn out check collection system controversy, which has caused a sharp division between big city and country bankers of the United States, will be renewed. The committee of Twenty-five, an insurgent group of bankers connected with the association, will hold special sessions. This committee handles legislative matters for the association. This war convention of the American Bankers' association is the forty-third annual one.

HARD COAL SUPPLY SHORT.
Missouri Towns May Be Shut Off This Winter, Says E. J. Wallace.
St. Louis, Sept. 25.—Missouri towns may be shut off from hard coal supply this winter according to E. J. Wallace, secretary of the Western Fuel Distributors' association, who has just returned from Washington where he conferred with Fuel Director Garfield.

Garfield stated the fuel situation is more serious than the public realized. Hard coal is not a necessity in Missouri where the climate is not so severe to demand a high grade of coal, Garfield contends.

Kansas City Stock Letter.
Kansas City Stock Yards, Sept. 25.—Cattle received yesterday were 29,600 head, which, in connection with combined receipts at the five leading markets amounting to 123,000 head, 26,000 head more than on any day last fall, made a very weak feeling, sales mostly 25c lower. Hogs 4,000, nothing choice, top $18.95, but choice hogs worth $19.00. Sheep and lambs 14,000, market slow and weak, receipts practically all feeders and limit of the market, choice hogs being worth $19.00, medium weights $18.90, lights $18.80. Receipts at all points are very light, but extra strong competition centers at Kansas City, keeping prices here a little above competing points, and higher than Chicago much of the time. A feature here is the big trade in immune stock hogs, and the keen demand for pigs on the yards from owners of immunizing plants, such pigs selling out of first hands at $16.50 to $17.25. Good corn weather strengthens the demand for immune hogs.

Sheep and Lambs.
The market is off a dollar per cwt. since the middle of last week on lambs, not as much on breeding ewes. Some good feeding lambs sold at $17.50. Choice Western fat lambs are worth around $17.50, plain natives $16.90.

A Few Short Stories Which Tell of the Richness of Missouri.

The Daviess county oat record is held by R. E. Weldon, who claims 226 bushels on two acres.

A contrary sunflower is reported from Lexington. It is twelve feet high and its flowers all turn away from the sun.

A big beat is proudly displayed by R. H. Simpkins, near Marble Hill. It is 22 inches long and 21 inches in circumference.

F. G. Ashbaugh, aged 82, of Avalon, is a bee specialist. He looks after 75 hives and last year's yield of 7,000 pounds he sold for $845.

Near Tanner, Mrs. J. M. Tyler had 25 hills of cucumbers from which she put up 35 gallons of pickles and sold $20 worth to the neighbors.

Missouri's oats crop this year averaged 38 bushels to the acre and totaled 42,405,000 bushels, as compared with 24,831,000 bushels last year.

Alfred Jones near Maryville threshed 138 bushels of clover seed from eight acres, selling it at $10 a bushel so that the yield on seed alone netted him an average of $172.50 an acre.

This year's corn crop out and away from all frost danger is estimated at 280,000,000 bushels, being exceeded only by the output of Illinois and Iowa. It is the largest yield since 1902.

AGAINST GUARD MERGER

Missouri Regiments Would Remain A Separate Unit and Apart From the Kansas Guard.

Camp Clark, Nevada, Mo., Sept. 25.—Movement of Missouri guardsmen to Ft. Sill is well under way today. The Fifth regiment and supply company of the Sixth left today. Cheering soldiers of the remaining units lined the tracks to bid them goodbye.

On the Fifth special train the "Sam-mies" chanted a number of epigrams. Here are a few:

"We'll trim the Kaiser's whiskers."
"Christmas dinner in Berlin."
"We'll get the Kaiser's goat."

The Fourth regiment left yesterday. The Second will entrain tomorrow and the Sixth on Friday.

Officers today declared their intention to back up Governor Gardner to the limit in his fight in Washington to prevent the war department from merging the Missouri and Kansas National Guard and abolish the old Second Missouri regiment.

The Growing Girl.

A girl when in her teens is passing through a critical period of her life. The transition from childhood to maturity is not always easy; consequently, in many cases health breaks down entirely and the girl goes into a decline and dies young. If she escapes this fate, she may fall into a state of permanent ill-health. It is of the utmost importance, in order to insure normal and healthy development, that proper precautions be taken, and nothing has proved more helpful than the faithful use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the great woman's medicine and tonic.

Will Attend State Fair.

A. D. Saunders and son, Will Saunders and daughters, Misses Prudie and Floy Saunders, left yesterday in their car for Whitesville, where they will visit over night with Mr. and Mrs. Grover Allen. Today they will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Allen and will drive to Sedalia to attend the State Fair.

"The Soul Master."

A striking instance of the fidelity with which the modern photoplay producer visualizes for the spectator the scenes in a story is offered in "The Soul Master," the Greater Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature which will be presented at the Empire theatre tonight. Earle Williams, the popular Vitagraph star, plays the part of a merchant, owner of a chain of department stores, and a great deal of the action takes place in a department store.

In order to get the proper atmosphere, the Vitagraph officials made arrangements with one of the big New York stores to permit them to stage some of the action there.

Government Wants Mechanics.

The United States Civil Service Commission, through its District Secretary in the Old Custom House, at St. Louis, Mo., and local Secretaries in all classified post offices, desires to immediately employ about 450 mechanics of various kinds for service in the eastern navy yards. The kinds of mechanics URGENTLY NEEDED at the present time, with maximum wages paid for eight hours work, are as follows:

4 Anglesmiths, $4.00.
3 Blacksmiths, $4.24.
14 Boilermakers, $4.24.
2 Boilermakers (flange turners) $4.00.

2 Boatbuilders, $4.32.
4 Blacksmiths, $4.24.
1 Cable Splicer, $4.00.
2 Canvas Workers, $3.50.
1 Chipper and Calker, Iron, $3.04.
21 Coppermiths, $4.24.
6 Drillers, $3.04.
1 Galvanizer, $3.36.
5 Heavy Forgers, $4.32.
5 Holders, $2.80.
12 Joiners, $4.24.
1 Lofisman, $5.04.
101 Machanists, all around, $4.56.
3 Machine Riveters, $3.52.
29 Rivet Heaters, $1.68.
16 Sailmakers, $4.00.
10 Sheet Metal Workers, $4.00.
79 Shipfitters, $4.24.
1 Shipfitters Helper, $2.48.
1 Shipsmith, $4.16.
2 Shipsmiths Helpers, $2.48.
17 Shipwrights, $4.08.

The above list is subject to change without notice. Transportation will be furnished competent mechanics who agree to work not less than six months. The wages quoted above will be paid subject to reduction after ten days in case persons employed do not prove to be first-class mechanics. No person will be hired who is now employed by a corporation or firm engaged on a Government contract. Mechanics are expected to take their tools and enough money to pay their living expenses for about two weeks. No quarters will be supplied. Journeyman carpenters experienced with axe and adze may qualify as shipwrights, and boilermakers who can read blue prints and lay out work may qualify as shipfitters. Coppermiths must be able to make copper utensils, do copper pipe work, and know how to braze copper and use the proper fluxes. Eight hours constitute a day's work, and time-and-one-half will be paid for overtime. Government employment does not usually exempt a person from military duty.

Regular or emergency form 1890, obtainable at any first or second class post office, should be executed immediately and filed in complete form with either the District Secretary at St. Louis, Mo., or the Local Secretary at Kansas City, Mo.

BOOTLEGGING BY AIRPLANE.

If it came from any other prohibition state but Oklahoma that story about airplane bootleggers would scarcely be credible. A long experience, however, with stories of strange happenings in Oklahoma does not warrant one rejecting it merely because it is improbable.

As the tale runs, the airplane hovered mysteriously over a darksome field until two autos appeared, when it landed its cargo of booze. Just how anybody knows that it was booze is not clear, although it is not impossible that certain Oklahomans have developed a sixth sense in these matters. At any rate, the motor cars are said to have whirled away with the prize while the airplane soared again to get a fresh consignment over in rum-soaked Missouri.

He would be cantankerous, indeed, who stopped to figure out that such a scheme is commercially impracticable; that it would take a good many gallons of whiskey, even at Oklahoma prices, to pay the purchase price of the airplane, to say nothing of the cost of upkeep, with proper deductions for depreciation. Nor is it pertinent to point out that airplanes are not in common enough use to make it possible for one to remain undetected in a surreptitious liquor traffic.

The point is that no one knows exactly how thirsty they are out in Oklahoma.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.
